

The Blood Covenant

A Study in the Faithfulness of God

Part 4: The Battle Belongs to the Lord (2 Chronicles 20:1-30)

Encounter the CRISIS.

God knows all about your scary situation.

Encounter the CRISIS.

God knows all about your scary situation.

Judah receives an intelligence report indicating that war is imminent.

God knows all about your scary situation.

Judah receives an intelligence report indicating that war is imminent.

Judah apparently is not prepared for such a huge military onslaught at this time.

Judah is faced with a very “normal” kind of ancient Near Eastern emergency.

Handle the CRISIS.

God puts divine resources at his people's disposal.

Jehoshaphat initially displays a natural human fear.

Jehoshaphat resolves to seek the Lord for help and guidance.

Jehoshaphat organizes a period of corporate spiritual focus.

Jehoshaphat prays the covenant and declares his dependence on God.

*When you're afraid and don't know what to do, pray
to the God who does.*

Release the CRISIS.

God is already part of the crisis because of covenant.

Release the CRISIS.

God assumes responsibility for the attack on his covenant people.

God gives specific instructions that require all of Judah to act in faith and praise.

God gives Judah a supernatural victory by defeating her enemies.

Embrace the CRISIS today.

God—our covenant partner—is always with us.

Embrace the CRISIS today.

God—our covenant partner—is always with us.

Recognize your crisis situation as an opportunity for God to demonstrate his faithfulness.

Embrace the CRISIS today.

God—our covenant partner—is always with us.

Recognize your crisis situation as an opportunity for God to demonstrate his faithfulness.

When the emergencies of life come, “center down” upon your covenant God in prayer.

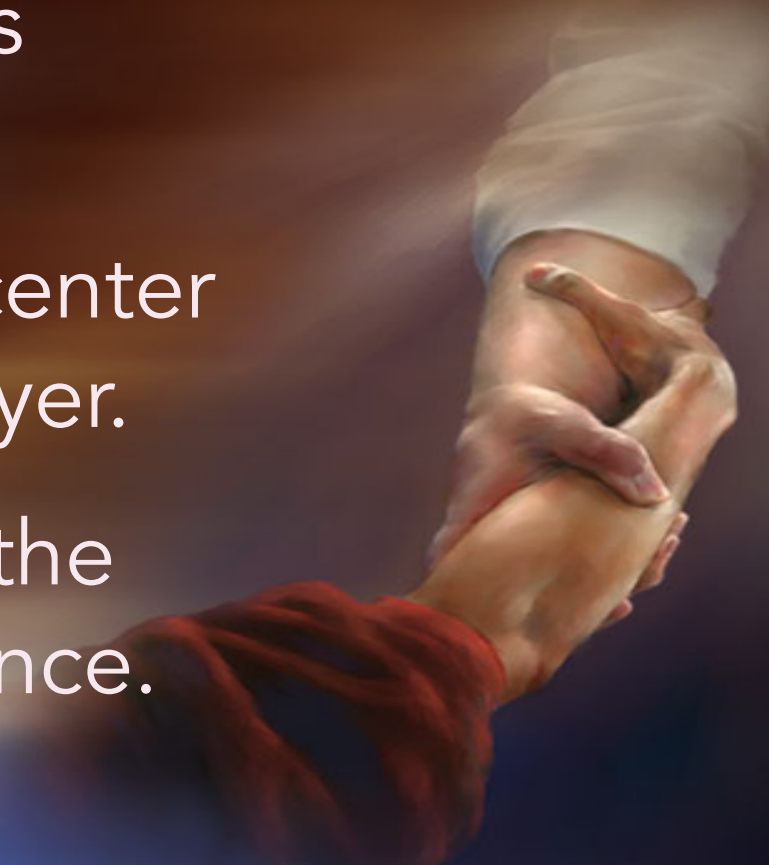

Embrace the CRISIS today.

God—our covenant partner—is always with us.

Recognize your crisis situation as an opportunity for God to demonstrate his faithfulness.

When the emergencies of life come, “center down” upon your covenant God in prayer.

Wait for—and then completely obey—the instructions that God gives for deliverance.

Embrace the CRISIS today.

God—our covenant partner—is always with us.

By faith, engage in “warfare worship” before, during, and after the emergency.

Embrace the CRISIS today.

God—our covenant partner—is always with us.

By faith, engage in “warfare worship” before, during, and after the emergency.

Know that your chief enemies—sin and death—have already been conquered in Christ.

"O Lord...we don't know what to do, but our eyes are upon you."

*When you're afraid and
don't know what to do, pray
to the God who does.*

The background of the slide features a close-up of two hands clasped together. The hand on the left is wearing a red sleeve, while the hand on the right is wearing a white sleeve. The hands are positioned on the right side of the frame, with the fingers interlaced. The background is a soft, out-of-focus gradient of blue and purple tones, with a horizontal line of small, glowing dots near the top.
