Part 3

Honor Everyone

1 Peter 2:9-17

The background features a dark, textured surface with numerous thin, glowing lines in shades of gold, yellow, and light blue. These lines are scattered across the frame, with a higher concentration and brighter glow on the right side, creating a sense of depth and movement.

God—and the godly—are on the lookout for the lost.

Gospel neighboring starts with getting to know the people who providentially surround us.

For each box (i.e., for each house around you), write down . . .

- The names of each resident
- General info about each resident
- In-depth info about each resident

The followers of Christ are given a shocking (and world changing) command—to honor everyone.

What does it mean to HONOR everyone?

The background of the slide is a dark, textured surface with a complex pattern of glowing, ethereal lines. These lines, in shades of golden yellow and light blue, swirl and flow across the frame, creating a sense of movement and depth. The lines are most concentrated in the lower right quadrant, where they appear to radiate from a point, and then spread out towards the left and top. The overall effect is reminiscent of a starry night sky or a nebula, with the glowing lines providing a stark contrast to the dark background.

What does it mean to HONOR everyone?

Honor others by treating them with value, significance, dignity, importance, or respect.

What does it mean to HONOR everyone?

Honor others by treating them with value, significance, dignity, importance, or respect.

Honor others even if they don't honor you in return.

What does it mean to HONOR everyone?

Honor others by treating them with value, significance, dignity, importance, or respect.

Honor others even if they don't honor you in return.

Honor others by going beyond merely tolerating them.

What does it mean to HONOR everyone?

Honor others even while disapproving of their values, beliefs, or lifestyle choices.

What does it mean to HONOR everyone?

Honor others even while disapproving of their values, beliefs, or lifestyle choices.

Honor others by disagreeing with them "with gentleness and respect."

What does it mean to honor EVERYONE?

The background of the slide is a dark, textured surface with a complex pattern of glowing, ethereal lines. These lines, in shades of golden yellow and light blue, appear to be drawn or etched into the surface, creating a sense of depth and movement. The lines are most concentrated and bright on the right side of the image, where they form a dense, fan-like structure that radiates outwards. The overall effect is one of intricate, organic complexity, reminiscent of a microscopic view of a material or a digital data visualization.

What does it mean to honor EVERYONE?

Everyone should be honored—the good, the bad, the ugly, and the vile.

What does it mean to honor EVERYONE?

Everyone should be honored—the good, the bad, the ugly, and the vile.

Everyone should be honored—the widows, orphans, aliens, disabled, disadvantaged, and unborn.

What does it mean to honor EVERYONE?

Everyone should be honored—the good, the bad, the ugly, and the vile.

Everyone should be honored—the widows, orphans, aliens, disabled, disadvantaged, and unborn.

Everyone should be honored who has been created by God and is loved by God.

What does it mean to honor EVERYONE?

Everyone should be honored because we can make a distinction between people and their work.

What does it mean to honor EVERYONE?

Everyone should be honored because we can make a distinction between people and their work.

Everyone should be honored for their personhood, but respect for their work must be earned.

What does it mean to honor EVERYONE?

Everyone should be honored because we can "unstick" a person's bad work from their personhood.

What does it mean to honor EVERYONE?

Everyone should be honored because we can "unstick" a person's bad work from their personhood.

Everyone should be honored because the miracle of "unsticking" is possible by the grace of God.
