a solid path to gospel embracing.*

The Story of the WOMAN at the Well

Practice gospel NEIGHBORING.

Build some margin into your schedule to practice gospel neighboring.

Overcome the classic barriers that prevent gospel neighboring.

Overcome the racial barrier.

Overcome the gender barrier.

Overcome the moral barrier.

Overcome the fear-of-rejection barrier.

Engage in respectful dialogue while gospel neighboring.

Find a way to tap into the real questions and deep concerns of the other person.

Find a way to genuinely honor, bless, serve, and be responsive to the other person.

Find a way to turn the conversation to spiritual things for the benefit of the other person.

Practice gospel MESSAGING.

Emphasize the greatness of who Jesus is.

Jesus is much more than a mere man.

Jesus is much more than a mere prophet.

Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, the Savior of the world.

Emphasize the graciousness of what Jesus offers.

The living water of salvation is God's gift, freely given to the underserving who believe.

The living water of salvation is God's gift, purchased by the One who thirsted on the cross.
