

O HOLY NIGHT, PART 4
CHAINS SHALL HE BREAK

1 Corinthians 7:17-24; Ephesians 6:5-9

God entered the human race through a descendant of slaves to set us free.

O Holy Night (from v. 2)

Chains shall He break for the slave is our brother,
And in His Name all oppression shall cease.

The PERSONAL Dimension of Christmas

The incarnation speaks of human nobility.

The incarnation speaks of human equality.

God was first made manifest in the flesh inside the flesh of another human being.

The POLITICAL Dimension of Christmas

To those under authority—remember the contentment of Christ.

To those wielding authority—remember the kindness of Christ.

We can begin to conquer our own oppression by adjusting our attitude before adjusting our circumstances.