

SUCH GREAT FAITH

Matthew 8:5-13

The greatness of your faith depends on the greatness of its object.

We are called to RECOGNIZE who Jesus is—not just a great moral teacher but the divine Savior.

The miracles of Jesus are a sign of who he is in the world.

The miracles of Jesus are a sign of where he's taking the world.

We are called to RESPOND to who Jesus is—not with idle curiosity but with saving faith.

Saving faith can start awakening in our times of deepest calamity.

Saving faith requires that we recognize our own spiritual depravity.

Saving faith will involve our submission to Jesus' authority.

We are called to REPLICATE what Jesus did—not in atoning work but in gospel mission.

Believers are called to help others physically—that they might flourish and be whole.

Believers are called to help others spiritually—that they might have faith and be holy.
