

YET WILL I TRUST HIM, PART 6
THE END OF SUFFERING
Job 42:10-17

The God who knows his people's suffering will someday end his people's suffering.

INTRODUCTION

Everyone loves a happy ending.

PEACE WITH GOD

The end of our suffering commences with our restoration to God.

Humility is the primary response to a true encounter with God.

Humility is the primary requirement for a true ministry for God.

PEACE WITH OTHERS

The end of our suffering continues with our reconciliation to others.

God is gracious and has made provision for the forgiveness of sin.

God wants his people to be gracious and extend forgiveness of sin.

PEACE FOR ETERNITY

The end of our suffering culminates in our reversal of painful circumstances.

God can reverse, on earth, the Satanic destruction done in our lives.

God can restore, in heaven, our treasured families who lost their lives.

CONCLUSION

Everyone needs a holy ending.
