I Have Seen the Lord

John 20:10-18

John 20:15-16

¹⁵ “Woman,” he said, “why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?” Thinking he was the gardener, she said, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.” ¹⁶ Jesus said to her, “Mary.”

The risen Christ cares about your pain.

A purple-tinted illustration of an empty tomb. The scene is set in a dark, rocky cavern. In the foreground, a large, rectangular stone slab is rolled away from the entrance of the tomb, lying on the ground. To the right, a simple stone bench or table is covered with a white cloth, and a white pillow rests on it. The floor is uneven and rocky. In the background, a bright light streams through an opening in the rock, illuminating the interior of the tomb. The overall atmosphere is one of hope and resurrection.

The risen Christ cares about
your pain.

Jesus is present even in our darkest hour.

The risen Christ cares about your pain.

Jesus is present even in our darkest hour.

Jesus does not let our despair go unchallenged.

The risen Christ knows you
personally.

The risen Christ knows you
personally.

Jesus knows who we are and what we need most.

The risen Christ knows you personally.

Jesus knows who we are and what we need most.

Jesus conquered the grave to give us hope.

The risen Christ redirects your priorities.

The risen Christ redirects your priorities.

Jesus wants us to share him with others, not keep him to ourselves.

The risen Christ redirects your priorities.

Jesus wants us to share him with others, not keep him to ourselves.

Jesus cares more about grace than our status in the world.

A white cloth, presumably the burial shroud, lies on the floor in front of the tomb. The background shows the rough, textured walls of the cavern, with a bright light source visible through an opening at the top, casting a glow over the scene.

The story of the risen Christ can change your story—forever.

Romans 10:9–10

“If you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.”
